Music & Flavours of Liguria

PRESENTANO:

II° FESTIVAL
dell'Alta Val Nervia
25 - 28 Luglio 2013
Castel Vittorio - Pigna

Christina Bjørkøe Piano

The pianist Christina Bjørkøe began learning piano at the age of five from her mother. In 1978 she became a pupil of Therese Koppel, who taught her until 1990, then she studied at the Juilliard School in New York and at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen, where she made her debut as a soloist in 1997. Christina Bjørkøe has been a soloist with many European symphony orchestras. In recent years she has given recitals in countries such as China, Sweden, Poland, the Czech Republic, Croatia, Germany, and South America. She has been awarded several prizes and grants. Christina Bjørkøe is associate professor at the Carl Nielsen Academy of Music Odense. Her recording of Knudåge Riisager's piano music received the Danish music award 2005 as Solo Recording of the Year.

Johannes Sørensen Violin

At the age of 14 Johannes Sørensen won the gold medal in a Danish music competition. Four years later he was a prizewinner in the International Carl Nielsen Violin Competition. He trained at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen with Professor Milan Vitek. As a soloist he has played with all the Danish symphony orchestras, as well as several of the other Nordic orchestras and the St. Petersburg Philharmonic in Russia. In 1992 he was engaged as leader of the Danish national Symphony Orchestra/DR, a post in which he has continued since.

Mette Bugge Madsen Clarinetto

Started out at the age of 15 in the Danish Radio Youth Orchestra. Later on educated at the Royal Danish Music Academy in Copenhagen. She is solo clarinetist in The Danish Radio Sinfonietta since 1981. An orchestra which during the last 15 years under chief conductor Adam Fischer, has developed into one of the leading Mozart Orchestras in Europe with a series of award-winning CD recordings. Especially the complete edition of all the symphonies by Mozart, has attracted attention all over the world. Mette Bugge has studied in Chicago, London and Paris and has during her career been soloist in all the great clarinet concerts.

Sara Wallevik Violin

Sara Wallevik is educated by professor Milan Vitek at The Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen. Later on she continued her studies at Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Ohio, and with professor Camilla Wicks in New Orleans. She has received the prestigious Jacob Gade prize in 1994. She has played numerous chamber music concerts all over the world. From 1990 member of the Cassiopeia Kvintett, and since 1995 member of the Royal Theater Orchestra in Copenhagen.

Claus Myrup Viola

Claus Myrup studied violin and viola with Professor Milan Vitek and Professor Josef Kodoušek at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen, Denmark. After his soloist debut he received the prestigious prizes "Carl Nielsen Travel Scholarship" and "The Danish Music Critics award". Since 1985 he has been principal violist of the Danish Radio Symphony Orchestra where he also appears as a soloist.

Claus Myrup is highly acclaimed chamber musician and has performed all over Europe. As a former professor at the Academy of Music in Aarhus he features regularly in masterclasses and as a judge in international competitions. His repertoire is extensive and he has performed and recorded a wide range of music.

Henrik Brendstrup Cello

The cellist Henrik Brendstrup is educated at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen with Erling Bløndal Bengtsson and in London with William Pleeth and Ralph Kirshbaum. He is one of the few Nordic musicians who has received both the French music prize Diapason d'Or and the German Deutsche Schallplattenpreis—the former for his recording of cello works by Chopin and Liszt, the latter as a member of the Danish String Quartet for the ensemble's recording of all Hindemith's string quartets. Henrik Brendstrup has performed as soloist and chamber musician in most of Europe, and has played with most of the Danish orchestras. In 1996 he received the Danish Music Critics' Artist's Prize.

Helene Gjerris Mezzosoprano

Helene Gjerris was educated at The Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen and at École Philippe Gaulier in London. She made her official debut in 1997, but already before this it was obvious that she was a remarkable figure in Danish music life. She performs with the same sharp focus whether singing a sacred work or an opera. She is deeply committed to contemporary music, and various works have been specially written for her. She has appeared in European baroque stage productions of operas by Handel, Monteverdi and Cavalli. In Denmark she has been a soloist with the Danish symphony orchestras, and at The Danish National Opera and The Royal Danish Theatre. New facets of Helene Gjerris are constantly emerging, and for her unusual versatility she has received several awards.

A SPECIAL GUEST: DANISH POET NIELS HAV

Niels Hav is a full time poet and short story writer living in Copenhagen. A contemporary Nordic voice with poetry and fiction published in numerous journals and anthologies in e.g. English, Arabic, Spanish, Italian, Turkish, Dutch, Chinese. A new English collection of his poetry, We Are Here is published by Book Thug of Toronto. Niels Hav has received a number of prestigious awards from The Danish Arts Council.

ABOUT:

It is with great pleasure that we can now invite you to our second festival which will take place this summer.

The festival in 2012 was "small but perfectly formed" - the artistic quality was high, and the connection between food and music innovative. The audience loved it and the festival attracted a lot of interest - not least from Italian TV.

Our small festival was a big success, thanks first and foremost to massive local support.

In 2013, it is a great pleasure for us to announce that Buggio and Pigna also are participating, and will host a number of concerts.

The program this year includes a wide selection of wonderful music, such as Mozart's Clarinet Quintet and the Schumann Piano Quintet. We have persuaded a number of Denmark's top musical talents to play for us. They come from the Royal Opera Orchestra and the Danish National Symphony Orchestra, and include the sublime mezzo-soprano Helene Gjerris.

WHO IS BEHIND:

Behind this Festival is a society "AMICI DELLA MUSICA E DEI SAPORI DELL'ALTA VAL NERVIA" to support and guide the development of the festival. Alta Nervia includes Buggio, Pigna and Castelvittorio. The members of the society are working in close collaboration with the local councils and a range of local people. All members of the committee work voluntarily.

The festival involves not only musical events and other cultural events of international standard but does also serve as a vehicle for the promotion of the many local high quality products which the region produces. We seek to combine cultural events with the promotion of local industry. F.ex. the superb olive oil which deserves a much greater gourmet public than it presently reaches.

We hope you will enjoy yourself. The entrance to all concerts are free but we invite you to either become a member of the association "Amici della musica e dei sapori dell'alta val Nervia" or simply give us your support. The association will be present at all events.

L'ASSOCIAZIONE "AMICI DELLA MUSICA
E DEI SAPORI DELL'ALTA VAL NERVIA"

Composta da volontari che contribuiscono con un piccolo sostegno economico gli eventi musicali e gastronomici del territorio. L'Alta Val Nervia include Buggio, Pigna e Castelvittorio. I membri della società stanno lavorando in stretta collaborazione con il consigli locali ed amici anfitrioni.

Con questo evento si tenta di promuovere l'attività turistica portando a conoscenza i migliori prodotti locali; la combinazione culturale è alettante in quanto la qualità proposta nei più bei borghi dimostrano un'attrattiva di grande interesse.

I migliori artisti della Danimarca sono lieti di offrire i loro concerti perché attratti da questi magici luoghi che da poco tempo sono sempre più ricercati da artisti internazionali per la bellezza e la tranquillità presenti nella magnifica vallata.

Completano la finale del festival espositori di ottimi prodotti di nicchia ed a denominazione riconosciuta e certificata.
